

I think what the Sinclair broadcast group is doing is unfair. The reason is the company isn't giving an opportunity to hear about the good things Sen. Kerry has done. Sinclair should be forced to air a documentary that shows both sides of each candidate for President, or should be forced to air no documentaries about the candidates.